

News articles from Minnesota highlighting problem gambling awareness month, March 2017

New gambling awareness campaign aims to reach college-age youth

By Andy Steiner, MinnPost

Just like the namesake of the famous country-western song, the stereotypical problem gambler is a drifter, an older man down on his luck and closing in on the final years of his life. But there is a new generation of problem gamblers out there who don't fit this tired stereotype, a group of college-age men and women who, after growing up surrounded by easy access to online gaming, local casinos and popular betting games like basketball brackets and fantasy football, are at risk for developing a serious gambling addiction.

<https://www.minnpost.com/mental-health-addiction/2017/03/new-gambling-awareness-campaign-aims-reach-college-age-youth>

March is National Problem Gambling Awareness Month

By Suzy Rook, Janesville Argus

Nearly 6 percent of college students in the U.S. have a serious gambling problem. During March, Problem Gambling Awareness Month, the Minnesota Department of Human Services is highlighting its new Just Ask MN campaign to raise awareness among young people about the risks associated with gambling.

http://www.southernminn.com/janesville_argus/community/article_cef5fe9b-c1a8-53a9-a17f-63ce979e89c0.html

It's Problem Gambling Awareness Month; Just Ask MN campaign to share risks with young people

By news staff, Hometown Focus

Nearly 6 percent of college students in the U.S. have a serious gambling problem. During March, Problem Gambling Awareness Month, the Minnesota Department of Human Services (DHS) is highlighting its new Just Ask MN campaign to raise awareness among young people about the risks associated with gambling.

http://www.hometownfocus.us/news/2017-03-17/Features/Its_Problem_Gambling_Awareness_Month_Just_Ask_MN_c.html

Problem Gambling Awareness Month

By Dave Strandberg, KDAL

Besides March Madness, and maybe because of it, March is also Problem Gambling Awareness Month. The Minnesota Department of Human Services is trying to raise awareness among younger people about the risks associated with gambling.

<http://kdal610.com/news/articles/2017/mar/14/problem-gambling-awareness-month/>

DHS launches Just Ask campaign (with AUDIO)

By Tasha Redel, Minnesota News Network

The Minnesota Department of Human Services has launched a new campaign “Just Ask MN” to raise awareness among young people about the risks associated with gambling.

<http://minnesotanewsnetwork.com/dhs-launches-just-ask-campaign-audio/>

March Is National Problem Gambling Awareness Month

By Kelsey Barchenger, KEYC

The Minnesota Department of Human Services is using this month to highlight its campaign, raising awareness about the risks that come with gambling.

<http://www.keyc.com/story/34817039/march-is-national-problem-gambling-awareness-month>