

Problem Gambling Service Administrators Announce New Officers

(JULY 27, 2017) The Association of Problem Gambling Service Administrators (APGSA) is pleased to announce its new slate of Board Officers and Directors for fiscal year 2018. The new roles were announced July 20th at the APGSA Annual Meeting during the National Conference on Problem Gambling in Portland, OR.

Outgoing President Lori Rugle announced the new officers for fiscal year 2018:

- President Terri Sue Canale-Dalman, Chief, Office of Problem Gambling, California Dept. of Public Health
- Vice President Jennifer Berg, Coordinator, Problem Gambling Services, New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services
- Treasurer Eric Preuss, Office of Gambling Treatment and Prevention, Iowa Dept. of Public Health, Division of Behavioral Health
- Secretary Helen Ghebre, Program and Policy Consultant, Minnesota Department of Human Services Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division

Other APGSA board members are:

- Nicole Corbin, Manager, Adult Behavioral Health Services, Oregon Health Authority
- Stacey Frohnafel-Hasson, Chief, Bureau of Problem Gambling, Ohio Dept. of Mental Health and Addiction Services
- Liz Lanza, Director, Pennsylvania Gambling Control Board, Office of Compulsive and Problem Gambling
- Jeremy Wampler, Director, Problem Gambling Services Program, Connecticut Dept. of Mental Health and Addiction Services

New president Canale-Dalman commented, "It is a great honor to serve as President of the APGSA. I have been a part of this organization for the past eight years, and it is my goal to continue to assist administrators in maintaining, if not expanding, problem gambling prevention and treatment services throughout the U.S."

APGSA is a national membership organization of state administrators of public funds for problem gambling services. The organization was formed in 2000 to support the development of services that will reduce the impact of problem gambling in the United States.
